Our History

Don Zimmermann was a carpenter by trade. His extensive background was in construction, building, and grading. He completed numerous land development projects and constructed many diverse area businesses.

Don loved working outside and building was his passion. Together, Don and his wife Ruby, decided to build a golf course in their hometown of Richeld, Wisconsin. You can see Don's rustic woodworking all around the clubhouse – the lumber in the building was sawed in his own sawmills! Don's spirit continues to live both on and off the course. And, with the help of their children – Brian, Dwight, Michele and Scott – Don & Ruby laid out the groundwork for what we know now as Zimmermann's Kettle Hills Golf Course.

The tradition of a family-owned and operated course continues with Don and Ruby's sons, Brian and Dwight, who took the reins in 2013.
